

Figure 7-9. Expected changes in performance at various times after a gun-crew chief is exposed to a single radiation dose, as specified. Contours represent a person's average performance in increments of capability (such as performing at 10% of normal capacity). Source: Data are derived from the Human Response Program of the Defense Nuclear Agency.

Back